Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all of my teachers, friends, and family for being an incredible support system throughout my college experience.

Special thanks to my saxophone instructor Jason Mingledorff for being an excellent, knowledgeable, and motivating teacher.

I would also like to thank the entire Loyola music faculty for always being inspiring and encouraging.

Another special thanks to Jesse Reeks for accompanying this recital and every jury I've had here at Loyola.

I am also grateful to the people doing a tremendous job working this facility tonight.

To the audience in person and online, thank you for being supportive and attending.
